

Sharda Cherwoo

Ernst & Young LLP (EY)

Retired Partner

---

Ms. Cherwoo has served as a director of the Company since 2020. Ms. Cherwoo retired as a Senior Partner at Ernst & Young LLP (“EY”) in January 2020, after more than 37 years of service, including 28 years as a Client Service Partner with a specialized industry focus on private equity, financial services, health care and emerging and disruptive technology companies. Beginning in October 2015, Ms. Cherwoo launched and spearheaded EY’s Intelligent Automation program, with a focus on strategic direction, governance and risk management. As part of that role, she also directed EY’s investments in robotic process automation (“RPA”) and digital transformation initiatives. She also advised a number of Fortune 500 companies on their intelligent automation strategies, including operating models, digital and talent transformation planning, artificial intelligence and blockchain initiatives. Ms. Cherwoo concurrently served as a Senior Advisory Partner in EY’s Private Equity practice group from August 2009 until her retirement in January 2020 and as a Global Client Service Partner and Global Tax Account Leader since October 1991. In those roles, she was responsible for advising on digital transformation, RPA initiatives, complex tax accounting and global tax planning, as well as mergers, acquisitions and divestitures and their impact on business and global tax strategies. Ms. Cherwoo also served as the founding Chief Executive Officer of EY’s Global Shared Services operations in Bangalore, India, which was EY’s first global offshoring center for client-facing operations from 2001 to 2004. Prior to that, Ms. Cherwoo held various senior leadership roles and other positions since joining EY in the U.S. in 1982 in the audit practice.

Ms. Cherwoo currently serves as a director and member of the audit & risk committee of Doma Holdings, Inc., an NYSE company (DOMA), since August 2021, and as a director and chair of the audit committee, as well as a member of the compensation and nominating and corporate governance committees of World Quantum Growth Acquisition Corp., an NYSE company (WQGA), since August 2021. She is a member of the advisory board of Land O’Lakes Inc., a member-owned agricultural cooperative, since December 2020 and a member of the board of trustees of the International House of New York since June 2008. Sharda also serves on the nonprofit boards of Tax Analysts and the National Association of Corporate Directors - New York Chapter.

In addition to her strategic, operational and leadership roles, Ms. Cherwoo has been committed to mentoring and bringing innovative ideas to diversity and inclusiveness efforts. She has been awarded the American Business Award® Silver Stevie® Award for Most Innovative Woman of the Year in Business Services in 2018, the Gold Stevie® Award for Innovation of the Year for her work in RPA and the 2017 Gold Best in Biz Award for Innovator of the Year in 2017.
